HPD Celebrates National Police Week

May 11, 2012

The Harrisonburg Police Department will join other law enforcement agencies to celebrate and honor National Police Week, which is held May 13 through May 19.

National Police Week is recognized every year in May. It was established in 1962 by a joint resolution of Congress to honor those officers, who lost their lives while in the line of duty. This designated week also recognizes the officers' surviving family members.

On Monday, May 14 at 9 a.m. law enforcement officials will conduct a flag-raising ceremony. The ceremony will be held at the Public Safety Building, 101 N. Main St.

Members of the community are invited to attend the ceremony. Police also encourage the community to show support of National Police Week by hanging blue ribbons and wreaths or by putting a blue light in windows.
